

European Cancer Nursing Day 2022

Competition Guidelines

Deadline for applications – Thursday 31 May 2022

Purpose: The aim of this competition is to encourage EONS members to enjoy creative involvement in ECND 2022 and to enable one nurse to attend the EONS15 conference in Paris, 9-13 September 2022 free of charge.

The ECND 2022 theme this year is “Supporting Cancer Nurses in caring for themselves and their patients” and this should be reflected in your activities, spreading the message to as many cancer nurses as possible.

Make a video: Applicants must provide a video and a brief description (300-500 words) of the event (in English, though entries will not be judged on the quality of language skills). Video footage should be approximately 1 minute long, in English or in the native language (with English subtitles at owners’ responsibility). In the video applicants must talk and show their ways, methods, team efforts of self-care in their organisation or national society and how these are these making an impact on nurses and patients.

The prize: One winner will receive free registration and travel expenses for EONS15.

Deadlines: The deadline for entries is 17:00 hrs on 31 May, 2022. Entrants will receive an email acknowledgement of their submission and can expect to be notified of the judges’ decision by 15 June 2022.

Conditions: The competition is open both to EONS individual members and EONS National Societies. Individual entrants must be a registered nurse working in cancer care and have active membership of EONS. If a National Society wins, it is up to that Society to decide which of their members they will to send to EONS15.

The EONS Secretariat will liaise with the winner to make the arrangements for EONS15. Half the award will be provided upon winning and half upon submission of receipts.

The winners will be invited to produce a brief summary of their experience at EONS15 and how they benefited from it, to be published in the EONS newsletter, website or via social media channels. This must be submitted by mid-August 2022.
