

Welcome to Turku! Travel & Location Advice for ECND24

Health, Visa and Travel Safety

We recommend that each participant complies with the latest health, visa & travel regulations to Finland (<https://valtioneuvosto.fi/en/information-on-coronavirus/current-restrictions>). We recommend having adequate travel insurance for your journey.

Arrival to Turku via:

By Plane

- Direct flights to Turku: Scandinavian Airlines, Wizzair
- Helsinki offers plenty of options for flights, including Finnair, Brussels airlines, Lufthansa etc., as well as Ryanair. There is a bus connection from Helsinki airport to Turku (2,5-3 hours) with a cost of around €25, available at <https://www.matkahuolto.fi/en>.
- Ryanair also offers flights to Tampere (with a train connection from Tampere to Turku).

If you encounter difficulty finding affordable direct flights, you can conveniently travel from Helsinki Airport to Turku by train or bus.

By Train from Helsinki to Turku (change at Pasila station) taking 2,5 hours and train tickets are affordable (purchase in advance from €7.90 per way, available at <https://www.vr.fi/en>. Trains from Helsinki stop at Kupittaa, at Turku UAS and Sokos Hotel.

By Boat consider a flight from/to Stockholm, Sweden (with affordable airlines) and take a cruise boat from/to Stockholm to Turku on Wednesday evening (around 8 pm) or Friday evening (around 8 pm). This allows you to arrive in Turku on Thursday morning around 8 am or return to Stockholm on Saturday morning around 7 am. Please seriously consider sharing a cabin to reduce the travel expenses to the ECND24 event. (<https://www.sales.vikingline.com/> or <https://en.tallink.com/book-a-cruise>).
